

Sept. 25, 1941.

The Employers' Group of
Boston, Massachusetts,
1180 Raymond Boulevard,
Newark, N. J.

Attention of Mr. Krauss

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the Newark Eagles Baseball Club played their last game for this season on September 14, 1941 at the Polo Grounds in New York City, therefore, every one covered by Workmen's Compensation Insurance is finished work for this season, with the exception of my office Secretary, who will be finished on or about October 1, 1941.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ